Memo.

Dewan's order :-

"I see there are three Inspectors above him (V.S. Rajagopalachari) and Shama Rao seems quite fit. He had been acting as Dy. Supdt. Amildar for several months. Why is he passed over?

From the gradation list of Police officers (put up) it appears that there are 5 Inspectors above V.S. Rajagopalachari, viz:- (1) M. Dada Rao
(2) D. Abbala Rao
(3) Simon Reuben
(4) Gunde Rao
(5) R. Shama Rao.

R. Shama

Orig 4. I think, since Shama Rao was promoted on the same date (1-10-99) as Rajagopalacha

R. Shama Rao is appointed as Coffee Inspector (No. 4 under the heading "Coffee Inspectors") and is getting Rs 80 + 50 (mahal allowance) + 20 (horse allowance) or in all Rs 150 per mensem, vice C. J. Allen, who, I hear, has resigned his appointment & is in the Nanjarad.

If the Inspector Generals' present arrangement be confirmed, V. S. Rajagopala chari will get Rs 80 (his present pay) + 20 (Ag Allowance) + 15 (horse allowance) or Rs 115 per mensem. (A draft however is subd as per Dewan's adep; but need not issue if the above information is considered sufficient. that is, 35 Rs less than what R. Shamarao is already getting.

The Inspector General states in reply to this office docket No. 625/362 dated the 13th Instant, that he does not know the reason why, nor is there any on record, to show why Inspector Rajagopala Iyer's promotion over his senior was proposed, but that if seniority + examination qualifications are considered, Inspector Ahobal Rao deserves to be promoted. The Inspector General adds that Ahobala Rao has served long in the executive line and that he had met him in several districts + found his work unexceptionable. SIR,

I have the honor to forward for favorable consideration an application from Inspector Rajagopalachar for the post of a Probationary Assistant Superintendent of Police, and to state that I am personally aware of th active and intelligent work rendered by the applicant both while he was attached to the Mysore District when I was Deputy Commissioner and during the plague riots at Ganjam. During the latter occassion it was necessary fo every Public Servant who had anything to do with the quelling of the disturbances which were not confined to any particular locality though Ganjam was the centre of operations, to exhibit an amount of courage more than ordinary to deal with the widespread discontent caused a misapprehension of the intention of Government as regards the measures adopted to arrest the spread of Plague , which dire epidemic has continued to claim hundreds , nay, thousands of victims in the Province. It was on the I8th of November I898 that the task of putting down riots in which thousands of the residents of the neighbouring villages took part , devolved on a " Plucky " body of Imperial Lancers and of Police , and I need hardly state that the applicant was one of the Police Inspectors who fearlessly carried out the instructions for arresting and checking the advance of the rioters who swore vengence against all Government Servants . It would be invidious to name in particular any one of those who were employed at the time to hold in check the rioters from committing any mischief , but I have no hesitation in mentioning the name of the applicant as one of those who acquitted themselves creditably on the occassion . "

Subsequent to the above event he did his work intelligently and zealously to the satisfaction of his superiors as long as he was attached to the Mysore District . This fact coupled with his respectable family connection -- strengthens his claims to preferment which the Government may recognize in a substantial way . It is true , he does not possess high University qualifications except that of his

His having passed the two branches of the Local Service Examinations ,but in my opinion he has not proved unequal to the work entrusted to him as Head Quarter Inspector, in which capacity he acted for a year or more . He will do credit as an Executive Officer to any post that may be conferred on him , and what that appointment is to be , I leave it to Government to decide .

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Inspector General of Police.
